Maldives

Shangri-La's Villingili Resort and Spa, located on Addu Atoll, is the first luxury resort in the Maldives to be situated south of the equator. Surrounded by lush tropical foliage and over 3 miles of breathtaking coastline, with a mile of pristine white sandy beach - this all-villa resort, offers a chic boutique-style experience in a natural environment.

Guests are spoiled for choice with seven distinct styles of villas, from private ocean retreats to tropical tree house villas with panoramic views of the Indian Ocean through lush foliage. Each villa is assigned a villa host, as part of the impeccable, personalized service offered at the resort. At the highest point on the island, in its own village, is CHI, The Spa, offering treatments inspired by ancient Chinese and Himalayan traditions.

The sensory pleasures of eating and drinking are catered for, with three restaurants and three bars and lounges, plus a range of dine by design options. Guests can take one of the regular speedboat runs to Gan and explore by bicycle the five islands connected by a 17-kilometer road.

Profile: 132 villas (children under 12 free in parents' room), 3 restaurants, 3 bars and lounges, dine by design, 24 hour in-villa dining, in-villa host, pool, CHI, The Spa, yoga pavilion, watersports, snorkeling, diving, first nature trail in Maldives, kids cool zone, fitness center, 2 tennis courts, Bose DVD player and complimentary Wi-Fi. Located on Addu Atoll, 70 minutes via domestic flight from Malé International Airport (connect from US with nonstop flights through Doha, Dubai, Europe and Singapore) and 8-minute boat ride from Gan airport. Open year round.
