Situated off the northeastern coast of Taveuni, Fiji is Laucala Island – a 25-villa private island resort that is the jewel of the South Seas. Once on the island, guests are surrounded by panoramic views of the turquoise lagoons, rich green mountains and sugar white beaches.

The villas are scattered across the island, along the beaches, against the cliffs and amongst the lush tropical vegetation and coconut plantations. Each is uniquely designed for privacy and space. Indoor and outdoor living pavilions include private pool, indoor and outdoor showers, oversized stone or wooden baths and exclusively designed furnishings. For their dining pleasure, guests are offered a wide range of culinary choices from five restaurants featuring a diverse mixture of worldly cuisine made with fresh ingredients from the island's own farm.

Any activity imagined is included on Laucala, from golf to sailing. The Kids Club offers fun for a child of any age from sports to art to cooking. The Spa offers four spa suites with specially designed relaxation remedies made from the island's natural resources with a focus on four signature scents. There is a spa garden where guests can explore and create their own spa products.
