

ROSEWOOD SAN MIGUEL DE ALLENDE

- ◆ 2011 Condé Nast Traveler Hot List
- ◆ Mexican Colonial Inspired Architecture
- ◆ Innovative Mexican Cuisine
- ◆ Sense, A Rosewood Spa®

At the heart of San Miguel de Allende is the luxurious colonial-styled, Rosewood San Miguel de Allende, enhancing the elegance and sophistication of an enchanting town steeped in history. The cultural influence of the town is evident in the hotel's architecture and décor, presenting a setting seamlessly blended amongst the Spanish colonial buildings, cobblestone lanes and church spires of central Mexico's oldest town.

The 67 expansive rooms and suites evoke the style of a Hacienda, with archways, wood-beamed ceilings, hardwood floors, authentic Mexican furnishings and Mexican art and craft as finishing touches. Guests on the ground floor will delight in their private terrace and garden while guests on the upper floors will enjoy the picturesque views of San Miguel de Allende's skyline and lush landscape from their private balconies.

Rosewood San Miguel's dining experience features innovative and sumptuous Mexican cuisine at the signature restaurant, 1826 Restaurant & Bar and Mexican and Spanish Tapas at the rooftop bar Luna. The renowned Rosewood Spa, Sense offers guest an indulging sanctuary with rejuvenating treatments, therapies, massages and facials.
