

Inside this issue

Home Subscriptions Contact us

Vol. 3 | Issue 31 | August 2, 2005

News

Peruse a Luxury Lineup

Need to add a little crème de la crème to your diet? Luxury-travel specialist Island Destinations is offering a full menu of deluxe getaway offers with its 2005 "Special Edition Summer Program." The lineup features special rates, packages and complimentary amenities at 11 resorts and the boutique cruise line Bora Bora Cruises. For example, indulge in a seven-night "Chill Out Package" at Carlisle Bay, Antigua, and receive four spa treatments per stay, two introductory yoga/Pilates classes and two films each evening in the hotel screening room ($4,590 per couple for an Ocean suite, through Nov. 4). Or slip away with your special someone to Maroma Resort & Spa, Riviera Maya, Mexico, which offers a five-night "Romance Package" highlighted by a two-hour private sunset cruise, a special three-course dinner and a snorkeling trip ($2,430 per couple for a Garden room, through Aug. 21). More offers are available at, among others: Cambridge Beaches, Bermuda; Kahala Mandarin Oriental, Hawaii; Peter Island Resort, British Virgin Islands; and Sandy Lane, Barbados. For reservations or more information, contact Island Destinations at 877 903 2525 or visit www.islanddestinations.com 